

OPAQUENESS

Meaning: Opaqueness refers to the quality of being not transparent or allowing light to pass through, often used metaphorically to indicate obscurity or lack of clarity.

1. The opaqueness of the glass made it impossible to see what was happening inside the room.
2. In her artwork, she embraced opaqueness as a way to convey deeper emotions and hidden truths.
3. The opaqueness of the water obscured the colorful fish swimming beneath the surface.
4. Scientists often discuss the opaqueness of certain materials when determining their suitability for optical devices.
5. His explanation was filled with opaqueness, leaving many in the audience confused about his true intentions.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/opaqueness>