

OPE

Meaning: "Ope" is an informal exclamation used to express surprise or apology, often when someone accidentally bumps into someone else or makes a minor mistake.

1. Ope, I didn't mean to bump into you like that.
2. When I opened the door, I accidentally said "ope" as I startled my friend.
3. Ope, let me help you with that heavy box you're struggling to lift.
4. In the Midwest, it's common to hear people say "ope" when they make a small mistake.
5. Ope! I almost dropped my coffee while trying to wave at you.
6. OPE is often used as an expression of surprise or realization.
7. When I accidentally bumped into the shelf, I exclaimed, "OPE!"
8. She opened the door slowly and said, "OPE, I didn't realize you were here!"
9. After tripping over the rug, he laughed and said, "OPE, that was unexpected!"
10. OPE can serve as a lighthearted way to acknowledge a minor mistake.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com
<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/ope>