

OPERCULAR

Meaning: Opercular refers to the bony or fleshy structures that cover and protect the gills of fish and other aquatic animals.

1. The opercular flap of the fish protects its gills from debris and predators.
2. During the dissection, the students examined the opercular bones to understand their function.
3. In some species, the opercular structure is brightly colored, serving as a form of communication.
4. The opercular muscles play a crucial role in the breathing process of aquatic animals.
5. Researchers discovered that the opercular movements can indicate the health of the fish in their environment.
6. The opercular flaps of the fish provide protection for its gills while allowing for efficient respiration.
7. In her research, she discovered that the opercular bone structure varies significantly among different species of fish.
8. The opercular mechanism in certain crustaceans allows them to rapidly expel water and propel themselves backward.
9. During the dissection, the students examined the opercular muscles to understand their role in respiration.
10. The opercular cavity is crucial for the survival of aquatic animals, as it houses important respiratory organs.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/opercular>