

OPINATOR

Meaning: Opinator: a person who expresses opinions or influences others' viewpoints, often through persuasive discussion or argumentation.

1. The opinator in the debate club often swayed opinions with persuasive arguments.
2. In the meeting, the CEO played the role of the opinator, guiding the team towards a consensus.
3. As an opinator, she had a talent for articulating her thoughts in a way that resonated with others.
4. His reputation as an opinator was well-deserved, as he consistently provided insightful commentary on current events.
5. During the discussion, the opinator challenged everyone to think critically about their assumptions.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/opinator>