

OPINING

Meaning: Opining refers to the act of expressing an opinion or viewpoint on a particular subject.

1. The judge was opining on the legality of the new law before making a ruling.
2. In her article, she was opining about the impact of technology on modern relationships.
3. Several experts are opining that the recent climate report could lead to significant policy changes.
4. He spent the afternoon opining with friends about the best strategies for investing in real estate.
5. The professor was opining during the lecture that critical thinking is essential for academic success.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/opining>