

OPPOSITION

Meaning: Opposition refers to resistance or dissent expressed in action or argument, particularly in a political context where it involves competing parties or viewpoints.

1. The politician faced strong opposition from rival parties during the election campaign.
2. In a democratic society, healthy opposition is vital for ensuring accountability in governance.
3. The team's opposition to the proposed changes was rooted in a desire to maintain traditional practices.
4. Despite the opposition from environmental groups, the construction project was approved by the city council.
5. Her passionate speech rallied the community against the opposition to their local conservation efforts.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/opposition>