

OPPOSITIONIST

Meaning: An oppositionist is a person who actively opposes or challenges the policies or actions of a government or ruling authority, often advocating for alternative reforms.

1. The oppositionist rallied supporters in a last-ditch effort to challenge the government's policies.
2. Despite facing intense scrutiny, the oppositionist remained steadfast in advocating for democratic reforms.
3. An outspoken oppositionist, she often criticized the administration's handling of economic issues.
4. The oppositionist's campaign focused on building a coalition of various political factions.
5. In a surprising turn of events, the oppositionist won a pivotal seat in the recent election.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/oppositionist>