

OPPOSITIVE

Meaning: Oppositive: serving to contrast or oppose established ideas, norms, or viewpoints.

1. The artist's work was an oppositive reflection of societal norms.
2. In their debate, each speaker presented an oppositive viewpoint that sparked lively discussion.
3. The opposing forces showed the oppositive nature of their beliefs in every argument they made.
4. Her choice of words had an oppositive effect, creating confusion rather than clarity.
5. The novel explores the theme of love and hate as oppositive emotions that often coexist.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/oppositive>