

OPPUGNATION

Meaning: Oppugnation: the act of opposing or challenging something, often through argument or criticism.

1. The scientist's research faced significant oppugnation from peers who disagreed with his findings.
2. In the debate, the senator's oppugnation of the proposed bill highlighted the flaws in its framework.
3. Historical texts reveal a long history of oppugnation against unfair taxation policies.
4. Despite the oppugnation from critics, the artist remained steadfast in her unique vision.
5. The philosophy professor encouraged healthy oppugnation of established theories to foster critical thinking among students.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/oppugnation>