

ORANGERY

Meaning: An orangery is a glass-enclosed structure, typically attached to a building, designed for the cultivation of plants, particularly citrus and other exotic species.

1. The old mansion featured a stunning orangery filled with exotic plants and flowers.
2. During the garden tour, we were mesmerized by the intricate architecture of the orangery.
3. She dreamed of hosting elegant tea parties in her beautifully restored orangery.
4. In winter, the orangery became a cozy retreat, warmed by sunlight streaming through its glass walls.
5. The botanist conducted experiments on rare species in the lush environment of the orangery.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/orangery>