

ORATOR

Meaning: An orator is a skilled public speaker, especially one who is eloquent and persuasive in delivering speeches.

1. The young woman was an exceptional orator, captivating her audience with every word she spoke.
2. In ancient Greece, the role of an orator was crucial for public discourse and political influence.
3. His reputation as a skilled orator earned him invitations to speak at various prestigious conferences.
4. During the debate, the orator skillfully addressed counterarguments while maintaining composure.
5. Many aspiring politicians take public speaking classes to become effective orators in their communities.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/orator>