

ORATORIAL

Meaning: Oratorial refers to the art or practice of formal public speaking, especially in a persuasive or eloquent manner.

1. Her oratorial skills captivated the audience from the moment she stepped onto the stage.
2. The oratorial tradition in his family inspired him to pursue a career in public speaking.
3. Mastering oratorial techniques can significantly enhance one's ability to persuade and influence others.
4. During the debate, her oratorial prowess shone through as she articulated her points with clarity and conviction.
5. He attended many workshops to refine his oratorial abilities and become a more effective communicator.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/oratorial>