

ORATORIOUS

Meaning: Oratorious: characterized by the ability to speak eloquently and persuasively in public.

1. The oratorious nature of the politician captivated the audience during the debate.
2. Her oratorious skills were evident as she passionately delivered her speech on social justice.
3. In the grand hall, his oratorious presence commanded attention from everyone present.
4. The students admired their teacher's oratorious ability to engage and inspire them with every lesson.
5. A master of storytelling, his oratorious performances left a lasting impression on all who attended.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/oratorious>