

ORGANOLEPTIC

Meaning: Organoleptic refers to the sensory properties of a substance, such as taste, smell, and texture, as perceived by the senses.

1. The organoleptic properties of the wine were evaluated by a panel of expert tasters.
2. She noted the organoleptic qualities of the chocolate, which included its rich aroma and smooth texture.
3. Researchers conducted a study to assess the organoleptic characteristics of different coffee blends.
4. In culinary arts, understanding organoleptic features is crucial for creating a balanced dish.
5. The organoleptic assessment revealed that the new cheese had a unique flavor profile that delighted the judges.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/organoleptic>