

ORIGINAL

Meaning: Original: adjective describing something that is the first of its kind or not derived from something else, often characterized by creativity and uniqueness.

1. The artist's original painting was a stunning portrayal of the landscape.
2. She always seeks out original ideas that challenge conventional thinking.
3. His original approach to solving the problem impressed everyone in the meeting.
4. The original manuscript of the novel is stored in a secure archive.
5. To truly appreciate the music, one must listen to the original recording.
6. The artist's original painting sold for a staggering amount at the auction.
7. She always preferred original ideas over recycled concepts in her work.
8. The original manuscript was discovered after decades of being thought lost.
9. He has a unique talent for creating original compositions that resonate with listeners.
10. Finding an original recipe for the dish transformed her cooking experience.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/original>