

OSCITANT

Meaning: OSCITANT: characterized by drowsiness or inattentiveness; yawning or showing signs of being sleepy or uninterested.

1. The oscitant student struggled to stay awake during the long lecture.
2. Her oscitant demeanor during the meeting suggested she was uninterested in the topic.
3. Despite the excitement in the room, he remained oscitant, barely stifling a yawn.
4. The oscitant responses from the audience indicated a lack of engagement with the presentation.
5. As he read the oscitant text, he found his mind wandering to other thoughts.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/oscitant>