

OSTENTATOR

Meaning: Ostentator: a person who displays excessive wealth or ostentation, often to attract attention or admiration.

1. The ostentator at the gala showcased their wealth with extravagant jewelry and a designer gown.
2. His ostentator behavior during the meeting made everyone uncomfortable and overshadowed the team's achievements.
3. Despite his talent, many viewed him as an ostentator, more interested in showing off than collaborating.
4. The ostentator's flamboyant lifestyle drew both admiration and criticism from those around him.
5. In a world where subtlety is valued, the ostentator's loud displays of luxury often seemed out of place.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/ostentator>