

OSTEOLOGIST

Meaning: An osteologist is a specialist who studies the structure and function of bones, often to analyze ancient remains for information about age, species, and lifestyle.

1. An osteologist examined the ancient bones to determine the age and lifestyle of the individual.
2. During the excavation, the team was fortunate to have an osteologist who could identify the species of the discovered remains.
3. The osteologist presented her research at the conference, showcasing the evolution of skeletal structures in mammals.
4. To become a certified osteologist, one must complete extensive studies in both biology and anthropology.
5. In her role as an osteologist, she often collaborates with forensic scientists to solve crime cases involving human remains.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/osteologist>