

OUSE

Meaning: 'OUSE' appears to be a typographical error or a truncation; the correct word is 'house,' which is defined as a building for human habitation, typically consisting of rooms and a roof.

1. The children played happily in the giant bouncy house at the fair.
2. She decided to redecorate her house in a more modern style.
3. After a long day, he looked forward to coming home and relaxing in his house.
4. The old house at the end of the street had a mysterious charm that intrigued everyone.
5. They spent the weekend cleaning and organizing the house for the upcoming guests.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/ouse>