

OUT-HEROD

Meaning: To out-Herod means to exceed or surpass in extreme or outrageous behavior, often to an exaggerated degree.

1. In his attempt to impress the judges, he managed to out-Herod even the most notorious competitors.
2. The director's latest film seemed to out-Herod his previous work, pushing the boundaries of absurdity.
3. She always had a talent for out-Herod her peers in debates, going to extremes to make her point.
4. In the theatrical performance, one actor's exaggerated portrayal of madness out-Heroded the original character.
5. The politician's outrageous statements seemed determined to out-Herod the wildest conspiracy theories circulating online.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/out-herod>