

OUTBLOWN

Meaning: Outblown: exceeded or surpassed in intensity or degree, often in a surprising or overwhelming manner.

1. The storm had outblown all expectations, leaving a trail of destruction in its wake.
2. His enthusiasm for the project was quickly outblown by the team's lack of interest.
3. The fireworks display was magnificent, but the final explosion outblown everything that came before it.
4. She realized that her worries had been outblown by the actual outcome of the event.
5. In the end, the controversy was outblown by the positive feedback from the audience.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/outblown>