OUTBLUSH

Meaning: To outblush means to blush more intensely or noticeably than others, often due to embarrassment or flattery.

1. She managed to outblush everyone with her radiant smile during the ceremony.
2. His unexpected compliment made her outblush even more than she thought possible.
3. At the party, her lively stories made the other guests outblush with laughter.
4. He was so charming that he could easily outblush even the shyest person in the room.
5. The vibrant sunset seemed to outblush the roses in the garden, creating a breathtaking scene.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/outblush