

OUTBOWED

Meaning: Outbowed: surpassed or exceeded in a competitive context, often implying a graceful or impressive display.

1. The ancient trees in the forest seemed to have outbowed each other in their quest for sunlight.
2. Despite the fierce competition, her talent outbowed all others at the talent show.
3. The artist's latest work outbowed his previous pieces, showcasing a newfound depth of emotion.
4. As the sun set, the landscape's beauty outbowed any painting hung in the gallery.
5. In her speech, she outbowed her opponent with a compelling argument that swayed the audience.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/outbowed>