

OUTCLIMB

Meaning: Outclimb: to climb higher or faster than someone else in a competitive context.

1. She managed to outclimb her competitors during the final stretch of the race.
2. With determination and skill, he was able to outclimb his brother on the steep trail.
3. The young athlete trained rigorously to outclimb every seasoned hiker in the group.
4. In a surprising turn of events, she outclimbed her own expectations and reached the summit first.
5. His exceptional technique allowed him to outclimb everyone else in the climbing competition.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/outclimb>