

OUTCRIER

Meaning: OUTCRIER: A person who publicly announces news or proclamations, often in a bustling or crowded setting.

1. The outcrier announced the news of the king's decree to the bustling crowd.
2. In ancient cities, the outcrier played a vital role in keeping the public informed.
3. As the outcrier shouted the latest happenings, people gathered around to listen intently.
4. Many relied on the outcrier for timely updates, especially before the advent of modern communication.
5. The dramatic tone of the outcrier's voice captivated everyone in the marketplace.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/outcrier>