

OUTFLING

Meaning: Outfling (verb): to cast away or dismiss concerns, worries, or doubts in a decisive manner.

1. She decided to outfling her worries by embracing a more carefree attitude.
2. In the heat of the moment, he managed to outfling the doubts that plagued him.
3. The athlete's ability to outfling his competitors set him apart in the tournament.
4. With a swift motion, she chose to outfling the negative thoughts that clouded her mind.
5. The artist's new technique allowed her to outfling traditional methods and create something unique.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/outfling>