

OUTLABOR

Meaning: Outlabor (verb): To work harder or more diligently than others in a competitive environment.

1. In the competitive world of startups, it's crucial to outlabor your rivals to secure a successful launch.
2. She believed that by outlaboring her peers, she would eventually earn a promotion.
3. The team managed to outlabor their competitors, delivering the project ahead of schedule.
4. Through sheer determination, he aimed to outlabor everyone in the office during the busy season.
5. To achieve his goals, he understood that he needed to outlabor not just his colleagues, but also his own previous efforts.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/outlabor>