

OUTLEAP

Meaning: Outleap: to leap or jump farther or higher than someone or something else.

1. The cat seemed to outleap its competitors during the agility course.
2. With a burst of energy, the athlete managed to outleap his previous record.
3. The young deer was able to outleap the obstacles in its path effortlessly.
4. As the frog prepared to jump, it calculated how to outleap the others in the race.
5. In a surprising display of strength, the gymnast outleaped her rival on the balance beam.
6. The athlete managed to outleap all his competitors in the high jump finals.
7. In a surprising display of agility, the young deer outleaped the obstacles in its path.
8. With a powerful push, the frog outleapt the other creatures during the race.
9. She practiced daily to outleap her previous record and secure the championship title.
10. The gymnast's routine was so impressive that she seemed to outleap gravity itself.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/outleap>