

OUTSPEAK

Meaning: Outspoke: to express oneself more effectively or persuasively than another, particularly in a debate or discussion.

1. In a heated debate, she managed to outspoke her opponent with compelling arguments.
2. The young activist was determined to outspoke the older generation on environmental issues.
3. His passion for social justice allowed him to outspoke many who were hesitant to voice their opinions.
4. During the town hall meeting, she outspoke everyone else, capturing the audience's attention.
5. To truly effect change, he knew he had to outspoke those who favored the status quo.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/outspoke>