

OUTSTRIP

Meaning: OUTSTRIP: to exceed or surpass in quantity, degree, or achievement.

1. The company's profits have outstripped initial projections this quarter.
2. Her determination to succeed seemed to outstrip that of her competitors.
3. As technology advances, the demand for skilled workers may outstrip supply.
4. The rapid growth of the startup is set to outstrip that of its larger rivals.
5. In many regions, the population growth continues to outstrip available resources.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/outstrip>