

OUTTHROW

Meaning: Outthrow (verb): To throw farther or with greater force than another competitor.

1. The athlete managed to outthrow his competitors with an impressive final effort.
2. In the last round of the competition, she needed to outthrow her rival to secure the gold medal.
3. He has been practicing tirelessly to outthrow his personal best in the upcoming event.
4. During the training session, the coach emphasized the importance of technique to outthrow the distance record.
5. The young prodigy surprised everyone by outthrowing seasoned players in the championship.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/outthrow>