

OUTWALK

Meaning: Outwalk (verb): To walk faster or farther than someone else, often in a competitive context.

1. She managed to outwalk her competition during the marathon.
2. Despite the challenging terrain, he always seemed to outwalk everyone else on the hiking trail.
3. The dog loved to outwalk its owner, darting ahead with boundless energy.
4. In a surprising twist, she decided to outwalk the group, setting a fast pace that left them behind.
5. He trained hard to outwalk his previous record, determined to improve his stamina.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/outwalk>