

OUTWARD

Meaning: Outward refers to the external or visible aspects of something, particularly in relation to appearance or expression.

1. She maintained an outward appearance of confidence despite her inner doubts.
2. The outward signs of spring are evident in the blooming flowers and warmer weather.
3. His outward demeanor was calm, but inside he was feeling anxious.
4. They made an outward display of generosity during the charity event.
5. The expedition focused on the outward journey, exploring uncharted territories.
6. The outward appearance of the building was impressive, drawing the attention of passersby.
7. Despite her outward confidence, she felt nervous inside during the presentation.
8. He made an outward show of enthusiasm, but his eyes revealed a different story.
9. The team focused on outward expansion as a strategy to increase their market share.
10. Her outward demeanor suggested calmness, but she was struggling with her thoughts.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/outward>