

OUTWEEP

Meaning: Outweep: to weep more abundantly or express greater sorrow than others.

1. She managed to outweep everyone else at the funeral, her sorrow palpable.
2. In their heated argument, she vowed to outweep him, believing her tears would sway the discussion.
3. The movie's tragic ending left the audience in tears, but she seemed determined to outweep them all.
4. Despite his attempts to be stoic, he found it hard to outweep the emotional intensity of the moment.
5. As the music played, she let her emotions flow, hoping to outweep the haunting memories that lingered.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/outweep>