

OVERBURN

Meaning: Overburn refers to the excessive heating of a material, such as metal or fuel, leading to degradation or combustion.

1. Overburn can occur during the forging process if the metal is heated excessively.
2. The engine began to overburn, causing smoke to billow from under the hood.
3. To prevent overburn, it's crucial to monitor the temperature closely while cooking.
4. She noticed the paint overburn on the edges of the metal after the welding was complete.
5. Proper ventilation is essential to avoid overburn while using a high-powered laser cutter.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/overburn>