

OVERCOLD

Meaning: Overcold (adjective): excessively cold, causing discomfort or chill.

1. The air conditioning in the office was set too low, leaving everyone feeling overcold.
2. After spending too much time in the freezer, I stepped outside into the warm sun, grateful to escape the overcold atmosphere.
3. She wrapped herself in a blanket, complaining that the room felt overcold despite the heater running.
4. The overcold water in the pool made it nearly impossible to enjoy a swim on that chilly day.
5. Even in winter, it's rare for the temperature to drop so low that we feel overcold indoors.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/overcold>