

OVERCOVER

Meaning: Overcover (verb): to provide excessive or redundant coverage or protection beyond what is necessary.

1. The company decided to overcover its latest product launch with extensive marketing campaigns.
2. In an effort to overcover potential risks, the team implemented multiple safety protocols.
3. She felt it was unnecessary to overcover the issue with excessive details during the presentation.
4. To ensure nothing was overlooked, the committee chose to overcover every aspect of the proposal.
5. His tendency to overcover the facts often led to confusion among his colleagues.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/overcover>