

OVERDRINK

Meaning: Overdrink: to consume an excessive amount of alcohol, often in social situations or as a response to emotional stress.

1. It's easy to overdrink during celebrations when everyone is in high spirits.
2. She realized she had a tendency to overdrink whenever she felt stressed or anxious.
3. To avoid feeling sick the next day, it's important not to overdrink at the party.
4. Many people struggle with the urge to overdrink when they are surrounded by friends.
5. He decided to stay sober for the evening to prevent his habit of overdrinking from resurfacing.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/overdrink>