

OVERDROWN

Meaning: Overdrown: to overflow or flood beyond normal levels due to excessive water accumulation.

1. The intense rain caused the river to overdrown, flooding the surrounding fields.
2. After the unexpected storm, the lake had overdrowned, swallowing up the nearby park.
3. Residents were shocked to find that the creek had overdrowned overnight, submerging their gardens.
4. Efforts to divert the flow were in vain, as the reservoir began to overdrown its banks.
5. The rapid snowmelt led to fears that the valley would overdrown, posing a threat to local wildlife.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/overdrown>