

OVERFILL

Meaning: Overfill (verb): To fill a container or space beyond its capacity, leading to potential spills or overflow.

1. It's important not to overfill the containers to prevent spills during transport.
2. The technician warned us that overfilling the tank could cause a dangerous overflow.
3. She had to quickly clean up the mess after accidentally overfilling her glass with water.
4. If you overfill the tire, it may lead to a blowout on the highway.
5. The recipe specifically states to avoid overfilling the baking dish to ensure even cooking.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/overflow>