

OVERHOLD

Meaning: Overhold: to maintain or retain a position, investment, or strategy longer than usual, often in the face of external pressure or changing circumstances.

1. The team decided to overhold their position, despite the mounting pressure from the competitors.
2. In an unusual move, the company chose to overhold its investments during the economic downturn.
3. Players are often advised not to overhold their cards in poker, as it can lead to missed opportunities.
4. Rather than selling off their assets, they opted to overhold until the market improved.
5. The strategy to overhold inventory was risky, but it ultimately paid off when demand surged.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/overhold>