

OVERINFORM

Meaning: To provide excessive or unnecessary information that may cause confusion or overwhelm the recipient.

1. Overinforming the team about every minor detail can lead to confusion and frustration.
2. It's essential not to overinform clients, as too much information may overwhelm them.
3. During the presentation, I realized that I had a tendency to overinform the audience about the project's background.
4. The manager decided to avoid overinforming employees to keep communication clear and concise.
5. When you overinform users about the app's features, it can detract from the overall experience.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/overinform>