

OVERLAP

Meaning: OVERLAP: To extend over and cover part of something else; to have areas or interests that are shared or coincide with one another.

1. The two circles overlap, creating a shaded area in the middle.
2. Their interests overlap significantly, making collaboration easy and effective.
3. The project timelines overlap, which could lead to scheduling conflicts.
4. She noticed that their experiences tend to overlap, revealing common challenges.
5. The themes of the novel and the film overlap, but each interprets them uniquely.
6. The schedules of the two events overlap, making it difficult for attendees to participate in both.
7. In the Venn diagram, the area where the circles overlap represents the shared traits of the two groups.
8. As their interests began to overlap, they found it easier to connect on a deeper level.
9. The architect designed the new building to overlap with the existing structure, creating a seamless transition.
10. Her expertise in both marketing and technology allowed her to find solutions where the two fields overlap.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/overlap>