

OVERPAMPER

Meaning: To overpamper means to excessively indulge or spoil someone or something, often leading to dependency or entitlement.

1. Some parents tend to overpamper their children, making them reliant on others for basic tasks.
2. She realized that by overpampering her dog, she had inadvertently created a spoiled pet.
3. It's easy to overpamper someone you love, but sometimes tough love is necessary for growth.
4. Overpampering can lead to unrealistic expectations and disappointment in relationships.
5. He decided to stop overpampering himself and start embracing a more disciplined lifestyle.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/overpamper>