

OVERPERCH

Meaning: Overperch: to perch or sit on a high place, often with an implication of surveying or balancing precariously.

1. The eagle chose to overperch on the highest branch, surveying the landscape below.
2. During the performance, the acrobat seemed to overperch, executing a flawless balance high above the crowd.
3. It's common for birds to overperch on the edges of cliffs to catch the best views of their territory.
4. When the cat decided to overperch on the windowsill, it quickly became the center of attention.
5. He had a tendency to overperch during discussions, often dominating the conversation without realizing it.

---

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/overperch>