

OVERPESTER

Meaning: To overpester means to excessively annoy or bother someone with frequent communications or requests.

1. She tends to overpester her friends with constant messages, making them feel overwhelmed.
2. The manager warned the team not to overpester clients with frequent follow-ups, as it could drive them away.
3. I appreciate your enthusiasm, but you don't want to overpester potential employers during the hiring process.
4. Kids often overpester their parents when they're bored, asking for attention every few minutes.
5. Overpestering can lead to strained relationships, so it's important to know when to give others some space.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/overpester>