OVERRULING

Meaning: Overruling refers to the act of rejecting or reversing a previous decision or ruling, typically by a person in authority.

1. The judge's overruuling of the previous decision surprised everyone in the courtroom.
2. After much deliberation, the committee announced its overruling of the earlier policy.
3. Overruled by the higher court, the initial ruling was deemed unconstitutional.
4. The attorney argued that overruling the motion was essential for justice to be served.
5. In a landmark case, the Supreme Court's overruling of the law set a new legal precedent.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/overruling