

OVERSLIP

Meaning: Overslip (verb): To unintentionally overlook or fail to address something important or to miss a crucial detail.

1. The driver failed to notice the warning sign and overslip the turn.
2. During the presentation, she overslip a critical point that needed further explanation.
3. He tends to overslip details when he is under pressure to finish his work quickly.
4. The athlete's footwork was so swift that he managed to overslip the opponent with ease.
5. If you overslip your deadlines, it could lead to serious consequences for the project.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/overslip>