

OVERSTATEMENT

Meaning: Overstatement: an exaggerated assertion or claim that amplifies the truth beyond its actual significance or extent.

1. The CEO's claim about the company's profits was criticized as an overstatement.
2. In his review, the critic argued that the film's impact was an overstatement of its cultural significance.
3. She realized that her excitement about the project led to an overstatement of its potential success.
4. An overstatement of the facts can lead to misunderstandings and misinformed decisions.
5. His tendency to exaggerate often resulted in an overstatement of his achievements.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/overstatement>