

OVERSTREW

Meaning: Overstrew: to scatter or spread things over a surface in a disordered or untidy manner.

1. The children overstrew the living room with their toys after playing for hours.
2. As the wind picked up, leaves began to overstrew the garden path, creating a vibrant carpet of colors.
3. After the party, the confetti was overstrew on the floor, making it look like a scene from a celebration.
4. She tended to overstrew her desk with papers, making it difficult to find important documents.
5. During the storm, the rain and debris overstrew the streets, causing delays in traffic.

Source: sentences.whatistheurl.com

<https://sentences.whatistheurl.com/sentence/overstrew>